From the desk of Secretary.....

Welcome to the transition virtual
Teaching – Learning process!

My heart brims with great joy and happiness when I note that Islamiah College, a century old and one of the top most Institutions in the southern states of India, has done the noble academic tradition of regularly publishing the College Newsletter that showcases the world of vistas of Islamiah College.

I am very glad to welcome you all to this 32nd Issue of our College Newsletter, refined way of exhibiting the academic achievements of faculty members and students as well as the innovations occurring in the campus. IC campus is always known for its perfection that it has got in all the activities and it has become a technological and intellectual hub of highly talented students and faculties. I feel proud to convey my best wishes to the versatile Editorial' crew behind this meritorious effort. I am tremendously proud of our entire College community and our achievements as we look continuously to the much better days to come. I am sure the College will scale up to greater heights in the years to come and serve many more in the society. I extend my hearty congratulations to the Principal, IQAC coordinator, CoE, members of faculty, students and the editorial team on their outstanding achievements.

Wishing you all the best...!

Mr. L.M. Muneer Ahmed

From the desk of Editor .....

A thought that will be enduring in mind when it becomes real; it really is an interesting and exciting experience. This Newsletter was one such cherished work that had its roots in the persuasion. This edition of our College Newsletter makes its presence during this period of lockdown, caused due to COVID-19. Right now, we see ourselves, collectively facing this pandemic, a situation for which we had no experience and little preparation. The contents of this Newsletter are the authentic record of the various activities that are undertaken by the College during past half year. Even a cursory glance at the content of this Newsletter is enough to show that Islamiah College has been progressing by leaps and bounds not only in academic and research but also in extracurricular activities. I heartily thank our Management for placing their trust in me for this Editorial work and Principal who has guided us through all phases of making this Newsletter. I would like to thank all the HoDs and co-ordinators of various support services for submitting the report in a timely manner. I thank our members of Editorial Board for their co-operation and support in bringing out this issue even during Covid 19 pandemic situation. It is expected that this mission will receive broad support through valuable suggestions and reader comments.

Dr. H. Abdul Jaffar Ali

From the desk of Principal.....

I am pleased to present our 32nd issue of our College Newsletter highlighting some of the key achievements over the past half year (July to Dec 2020), which marked an extraordinary period in our history. We faced unprecedented challenges with the onset of the global COVID-19 pandemic. We harnessed our collective energy and optimism to continuously deliver the curriculum and share our expertise. While we anxiously await the moment of our campus fully reopen in accordance with public health measures, we continue to be physically separated but closely connected, through a multitude of engagement initiatives through social media and other online platforms to keep our faculty, staff members and students working and learning together, and maintaining the spirit that defines our campus culture. I hope you enjoy reading about incredible accomplishments of Islamiah College in this 32nd Newsletter, a testament to the welcoming, passionate, and trailblazing characteristics that define our institute, and which shone with particular brilliance during this past half-year. This edition encloses the online activities such as FDP, conferences attended and paper published in International and National journals by staff members and competitions won by the students and innovative projects carried out by them. I take this opportunity to thank all the stakeholders for showing interest and continuous support. My congratulations to the Editorial team who took the responsibility for the arduous task most effectively. I pray Almighty for the strength and patience to succeed in our vision and new goals in the years to come

Dr. T. Mohamed Ilyas
